training, employment counseling, as well as life skills and health and safety workshops. The ultimate goal for every family entering BHS programs is permanent, affordable housing and personal/family stabilization through a reliable income source. Licensed social work professionals and trained social service providers focus on restoring personal dignity and self-esteem through holistic and empowering services. Life skills and financial literacy services provide training on securing income and budgeting money, managing time and relationships, housekeeping, safety practices, health and wellness, stress management, education, job training and retention, self-worth, family reunification and related topics.

The child/parent program focuses on the special emotional, physical, and relational needs of homeless children in crisis. The program is designed to prevent neglect and abuse of the children through the implementation of the parenting plus curriculum with mothers, weekly support groups and children's enrichment program.

Post shelter support includes follow-up housing, phone and visits at Bethany House with formerly homeless women and children who have successfully completed the shelter program. This follow up program is designed and implemented to help the families maintain stable housing, income and general well-being.

Other shelter services include: transportation assistance, meals,
