the search for housing; and establish connections with community resources. Mental Health assessment is provided by an on-site mental health clinician. Every parent who enters shelter has experienced trauma and stress; all are referred to the mental health clinician for support. She listens, counsels, conducts assessments and refers clients to community mental health care providers for follow-up if needed. BHS provides Life Skills education to all adults while they are in shelter. The topics cover information vital to the successful transition of families from homelessness to stable housing. Life Skills classes teach parents the basics of independent living.

Budgeting, finding a job, effective parenting, education resources, nutrition, housekeeping, tenant rights/responsibilities and other vital topics are presented. Children's Programming addresses the multigenerational aspect of family homelessness by providing parents with the skills for "positive parenting" and by teaching the children in shelter to make healthy life choices. These high-risk children learn the importance of education, nutrition, health, self-esteem and non-violent conflict resolution. Children experiencing signs of traumatic stress or other issues are referred to the Children's Home therapists who are on-site at Bethany House two days per week.

Aftercare provides a safety net for families who have left shelter but experience an emergency situation that threatens their housing homeless families resulted in the rollout of two new components on January 1, 2018--a uniform, best practice aftercare program, including staffing, and an expansion of emergency assistance for homeless families at all four agencies. The S4FH Children and Youth Task Force, consisting of over 30 professionals representing over 15 organizations, continues to meet monthly to develop strategy and programming, create system change, and network with the sole focus of improving services for children and youth experiencing homelessness. This community partnership has resulted in improvements in child care placement, school enrollment and transportation for Cincinnati's homeless children.

case management and rental assistance for families at imminent risk of homelessness. Shelter Diversion is more cost-effective than entering an Emergency Shelter, plus the family avoids the trauma of homelessness.

In 2017, BHS served 47 families, 180 individuals, 129 of them children.

84% of the families increased their self sufficiency scores during 3-6 months of program participation. 74% of families exiting the program increased their income. Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) combines non-time-limited rental assistance with wrap-around supportive services for people with complex needs related to physical or mental health, developmental disabilities or substance use. Since the program began on July 1, 2017, Permanent Supportive Housing served 25 families, 100 individuals, 69 of them children. Bethany Homes is a 24-unit apartment building for economically challenged individuals and families, most of them whom are supported by a single female working provider. Every family who comes into the shelter needs permanent, safe, affordable housing. Renovations of Bethany Homes continued in 2017; many apartments got new hot water heaters, windows, refrigerators, stoves and flooring in the kitchen and bathrooms.

Residents benefited from regular food donations, Christmas gifts, summer cookouts and a variety of activities for the children.

policy which dictates the procedures and practices to be followed to prevent the personal interest of staff members, board members and volunteers from interfering with the performance of their duties, or results in the personal, financial or political gain at the expense of the agency, its members, supporters or other stakeholders. Each board member, officer, staff member and volunteer signs and dates the policy at the beginning of their term of service or employment and each year thereafter. This policy and disclosure form is reviewed and distributed annually by all specified parties. Full disclosure is required, by notice in writing, by all interested parties to the full board of directors in all conflicts of interest. Supervisors annually conduct performance evaluations which are based on performance of responsibilities from job descriptions and achievement of goals. Each employee also submits a self-evaluation. Following the supervisor's and employee's discussion and review, the evaluation is scored. Raises are distributed to employees based on the scores and available funding. Compensation is determined and approved by the Board when it approves the annual budget. The actions of the Board are documented in the minutes.
